Career History and Professional Experience	Appointed President and CEO of the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountant (CICA) in June 2006. Previously served as the CEO and Canadian Senior Partner of PricewaterhouseCoopers from 2001 to 2005. Prior to his election by firm partners to this position, he served as leader of PricewaterhouseCoopers' Canadian Tax Services group. Kevin joined Coopers & Lybrand in 1973, moving to the Tax Group in 1976. He was appointed partner in 1980. Between 1985 and 1987 he was special adviser to the Department of Finance as part of the Executive Interchange Program and, from 1993 to 1995, he served as Assistant Deputy Minister of Finance in the Tax Policy Branch of the Department of Finance. In 1995, he was appointed leader of Coopers & Lybrand's Canadian Tax practice, a position he retained after the merger. In 2006, he was appointed a member of the Auditor General's Panel of Senior Advisors and the Board of the International Federation of Accountants (IFAC). He is also the Chair of the Global Accounting Alliance (GAA). In 2008, he was appointed Vice Chair of the Advisory Panel on Canada's System of International Taxation, established by the federal government. He served on the Council of Governors for the Canadian Public Accountability Board (CPAB) from 2006 to 2008. Mr. Dancey has written and spoken extensively on international and business tax issues.
