Proposed Changes to the IAASB Terms of Reference

Objective of the Agenda Item

1. To agree proposed changes to the Terms of Reference (ToR) of the IAASB. Such changes will also be considered by the other independent standard-setting Boards (SSBs) for their ToR.\(^1\)

Background – Review of IFAC’s Constitution and Bylaws and Related Issues

2. During the most recent review of IFAC’s Constitution and Bylaws, which was finalized in February 2014, a key area of focus was the clarification and reinforcement of the independence of the SSBs. Specifically, among other changes, the Constitution and Bylaws were amended to reflect the following:

- The composition, terms, and operating procedures of the independent SSBs shall be set forth in each SSB’s ToR. The SSBs’ ToR should be endorsed (previously approved) by the Board and approved by the relevant Public Interest Oversight Authority (i.e., for the IAASB, by the Public Interest Oversight Board (PIOB)).
- The Constitution clarifies that IFAC’s role is to provide resources (both human and financial) and operational and administrative support to the independent SSBs and, if applicable, in consultation with the relevant Public Interest Oversight Authority.
- The appointment of the chair, members, and observers of any independent SSBs should be endorsed (previously approved) by the IFAC Board and approved by the relevant Public Interest Oversight Authority.

Proposed Changes to the ToR

3. The Appendix to this paper includes proposed changes to the IAASB’s ToR and the underlying rationale for them.

4. These changes relate to the changes articulated in the IFAC Constitution and Bylaws as discussed above. In addition, though not part of the changes to the Constitution and Bylaws, some editorial changes and clarifications have been proposed including changes to differentiate between the authoritative pronouncements (i.e., the International Standards) of the Board and other non-authoritative material that it may develop.

\(^1\) In addition to the IAASB, the independent SSBs include the International Accounting Education Standards Board (IAESB), the International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants (IESBA), and the International Public Sector Accounting Standards Board (IPSASB). The IAASB, IAESB, and IESBA are also referred to as standard-setting Public Interest Activity Committees and are subject to PIOB oversight.
Initial Steering Committee Views

5. The IAASB Steering Committee was supportive of the proposed changes. In considering the proposals, the following additional matters were suggested for consideration:

- Further explanation of the role and remit of the Nominating Committee, and its relationship to IFAC and the SSBs, may be useful.

  See suggested changes in Section 3.0.

- Regarding the relationship between the IAASB and IFAC, a suggestion was made that some reference could continue to be made in either the ToR, or through other means (e.g., by reference to a separate document that more specifically addresses the relationship between IFAC and the independent SSBs).

  See suggested changes in Section 10.0

Way Forward

6. The IAASB’s feedback on the proposed changes to its ToR will be assimilated with feedback provided by the other SSBs on similar changes proposed to their ToRs. Assuming common support for the proposed changes, the changes will be discussed with the IFAC Board in November 2014 and, as appropriate, with the PIOB in December 2014 for approval.

<td>1.0 PURPOSE</td>
<td>To remove IFAC’s mission statement to help to clarify and reinforce the independence of the SSBs and because it is not directly relevant to the IAASB (that is, the focus of the IAASB’s ToR should be on the IAASB’s mission).</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The mission of the International Federation of Accountants (IFAC), as set out in its constitution, is “to serve the public interest by contributing to the development, adoption and implementation of high-quality international standards and guidance; contributing to the development of strong professional accountancy organizations and accounting firms, and to high quality practices by professional accountants; promoting the value of professional accountants worldwide; and speaking out on public interest issues where the accountancy profession’s expertise is most relevant.” In pursuing this mission, the IFAC Board has established the International Auditing and Assurance Standards Board (IAASB) to function as an independent standard-setting body under the auspices of IFAC and subject to the oversight of the Public Interest Oversight Board (PIOB). The IAASB develops and issues, in the public interest and under its own authority, high-quality auditing and assurance standards and other pronouncements for use around the world. The IFAC Board has determined that designation of the IAASB as the responsible body, under its own authority and within its stated terms of reference, best serves the public interest in achieving this aspect of its mission.</td>

• International Standards on Assurance Engagements (ISAEs) to be applied in assurance engagements other than audits or reviews of historical financial information.

• International Standards on Related Services (ISRSs) to be applied in related services engagements.

• International Standards on Quality Control (ISQCs) to be applied for all services falling within the above Engagement Standards of the IAASB.

The IAASB may also publish other pronouncements, non-authoritative material on auditing and assurance matters, thereby advancing public understanding of the roles and responsibility of professional auditors and assurance service providers.

The official text of the International Standards and other material pronouncements is that published by the IAASB in the English language.

The IAASB has 18 members comprising practitioners and non-practitioners, of whom no more than nine shall be practitioners and no less than three shall be public members. A public member is an individual who satisfies the requirements of a non-practitioner and is also expected to reflect, and is seen to reflect, the wider public interest. Not all non-practitioners are therefore eligible to be public members. The three public members may be members of IFAC Member Bodies.

To conform to the revised Constitution and Bylaws

Footnote added to further describe the Nominating Committee, as suggested by the IAASB Steering Committee

No change

[For noting: The definition of a public member is being discussed by the Nominating Committee, along with the PIOB and Monitoring Group (MG), and further changes to this]

2 The IAASB is supported by the nominating process as administered by the Nominating Committee. The Nominating Committee is part of the overall governance structure for the SSBs and IFAC. Nomination decisions are made outside of the management structure of IFAC and the SSBs, and under PIOB oversight.

3 A non-practitioner is a person who is not a member or employee of an audit practice firm and, in respect of individuals who have been members or employees of such firms, there shall normally be a cooling-off period of three years, but that such period may, on a comply or explain basis, be reduced, provided that such a reduction shall not result in a cooling-off period of less than one year. Where an individual is proposed for appointment with less than a three year cooling-off period IFAC shall provide to the PIOB the reasons for the proposed appointment, which the PIOB shall, in line with its authority to approve all appointments to the IAASB, have the authority to accept or decline.

4 While these sentences reflect changes approved to membership in 2011, the transition to the changes in membership will commence in 2013.

5.04.0 THE IAASB CHAIRMAN

The appointment of the IAASB Chairman is endorsed by the IFAC Board and approved by the PIOB. The IAASB Chairman must agree to be bound by independence requirements in order to assume the position. The independence requirements are outlined in Roles and Responsibilities of the Chairman of the International Auditing and Assurance Standards Board.

The IAASB Chairman is a remunerated position. IFAC holds a consulting arrangement with the Chairman as part of IFAC’s support of the IAASB. The Chair is selected by the Nominating Committee and recommended to the IFAC Board for its agreement and to the PIOB for subsequent approval. The provisions of the Chair’s remuneration, benefits and other conditions are determined in a separate contract between the Chair and IFAC.

The IAASB Chair must agree to be bound by independence requirements in order to assume the position. The independence requirements are outlined in The Independence Requirements of the IAASB Chair.

5.0 THE IAASB DEPUTY CHAIR

The appointment as IAASB Deputy Chair is considered a leadership position in support of the Chairman and does not imply that the individual concerned is the Chair-elect.

In the event of a vacancy by reason of the incapacity, resignation, removal or death of the Chairman, the Deputy Chair shall assume the duties of Chairman as acting chair, having full power, authority and responsibility of the role of the Chairman to manage the Board’s agenda and work program until the appointment of an interim or a new Chairman.

6.0 TERMS OF OFFICE

The standard term for IAASB members is three years, with approximately one-third of the membership rotating each year. A member may serve up to two consecutive terms, for an aggregate term of six years.

The Chairman ordinarily may serve three consecutive terms (as Chairman or as a member for one to two terms preceding the appointment as Chairman), for an aggregate of nine years. In exceptional circumstances, to be specified by the Nominating Committee, the Chairman may serve for one additional consecutive term, for an aggregate term of twelve years.

To conform to the revised Constitution and Bylaws, and to clarify the IFAC’s consulting arrangement with the Chairman. Other minor editorial changes are also included.

To provide guidance on succession matters.

No change.
7.0 MEETING PROCEDURES

Each IAASB meeting requires the presence, in person or by simultaneous telecommunications link, of at least twelve appointed members.

IAASB meetings shall be chaired by the Chairman or, in his/her absence, by the Deputy Chair. In the event of the absence of both, the members present shall select one of their number to take the chair for the duration of the meeting, or of the absence of the Chairman and Deputy Chair.

Each member of the IAASB has one vote which can be exercised only by the appointed member. The affirmative vote of at least twelve of those present at a meeting in person or by simultaneous telecommunications link is required to approve or withdraw International Standards and to approve exposure drafts.

IAASB meetings to discuss the development, and to approve the issuance or withdrawal of International Standards, and to approve the issuance of exposure drafts and other pronouncements, are open to the public. Matters of a general administrative nature or with privacy implications may be dealt with in closed sessions of the IAASB; no decisions that would affect the content of the International Standards and other pronouncements issued by the IAASB are made in a closed session. Agenda papers for open sessions, including minutes of the meetings of the IAASB, are published on the IAASB’s IFAC-website. The IAASB meetings and agenda papers are in English, which is the official working language of the IAASB/IFAC.

The PIOB has the right to attend, or be represented at, all meetings, including closed sessions, of the IAASB.

8.0 DUE PROCESS

The IAASB is required to be transparent in its activities, and in developing its International Standards, to adhere to due process as approved by the PIOB.

In setting its strategy and work program, the IAASB obtains the PIOB’s conclusion as to whether the due process used to develop the IAASB’s strategy and work program has been followed effectively and with proper regard for the public interest. The IAASB also obtains the PIOB’s opinion, as at the date of that opinion, on the appropriateness of the items on the work program, and its approval of the completeness of the strategy and work program from a public interest perspective. The IAASB adds to its work program those items that the PIOB resolves should, from a public interest perspective, form part of the IAASB’s work program.

9.0 CONSULTATIVE ADVISORY GROUP

The objective of the IAASB CAG is to provide input to and assist the IAASB through consultation with the CAG member organizations and their representatives at the CAG meetings, in order to obtain: advice on the IAASB’s agenda and project timetable (work program), including project priorities; technical advice on projects; and advice on other matters of relevance to the activities of the IAASB.
