

These proposed changes in relation to the auditing of annual reports, financial statements and other supporting information by the IAASB can only lead to greater consistency across all the jurisdictions. As someone who regularly deals with insolvency, I can only support these changes.