This is because of senior professional accountants' roles, positions and spheres of influence within the employing organization.

260.13 A1 ~~360.16~~ The purpose of the discussion is to enable a determination to be made as to how to address the matter.

R260.15 ~~360.18~~ In addition to responding to the matter in accordance with the provisions of this section, the senior professional accountant shall determine whether disclosure of the matter to the employing organization's external auditor, if any, is needed.

260.15 A1 Such disclosure would be pursuant to the senior professional accountant's duty or legal obligation to provide all information necessary to enable the auditor to perform the audit.

Determining Whether Further Action Is Needed

R260.16 ~~360.19~~ The senior professional accountant shall assess the appropriateness of the response of the professional-accountant's superiors, if any, and those charged with governance.

260.16 A1 ~~360.20~~ Relevant factors to consider in assessing the appropriateness of the response of the senior professional accountant's superiors, if any, and those charged with governance include whether:

- The response is timely.
- They have taken or authorized appropriate action to seek to rectify, remediate or mitigate the consequences of the non-compliance, or to avert the non-compliance if it has not yet occurred.
- The matter has been disclosed to an appropriate authority where appropriate and, if so, whether the disclosure appears adequate.

R260.17 ~~360.21~~ In light of the response of the senior professional accountant's superiors, if any, and those charged with governance, the professional-accountant shall determine if further action is needed in the public interest.

260.17 A1 ~~360.22~~ The determination of whether further action is needed, and the nature and extent of it, will depend on various factors, including:

- The legal and regulatory framework.
- The urgency of the matter situation.
- The pervasiveness of the matter throughout the employing organization.
- Whether the senior professional accountant continues to have confidence in the integrity of the professional-accountant's superiors and those charged with governance.
- Whether the non-compliance or suspected non-compliance is likely to recur.
- Whether there is credible evidence of actual or potential substantial harm to the interests of the employing organization, investors, creditors, employees or the general public.

260.17 A2 ~~360.23~~ Examples of circumstances that may-might cause the senior professional accountant no longer to have confidence in the integrity of the professional-accountant's superiors and those charged with governance include situations where:

- The ~~professional~~ accountant suspects or has evidence of their involvement or intended involvement in any non-compliance.
- Contrary to legal or regulatory requirements, they have not reported ~~the matter~~, or authorized the ~~matter to be reported~~ of, the matter to an appropriate authority within a reasonable period.

R260.18 ~~360.24~~ In ~~determining the need for, and nature and extent of any further action needed,~~ The senior professional accountant shall exercise professional judgment in determining the need for, and nature and extent of, further action. In making this determination, the accountant shall and take into account whether a reasonable and informed third party, weighing all the specific facts and circumstances available to the professional accountant at the time, would be likely to conclude that the ~~professional~~ accountant has acted appropriately in the public interest.

- Informing the management of the parent entity of the matter if the employing organization is a member of a group.

- Resigning from the employing organization.

260.18 A2 ~~360.26~~ Where ~~the senior professional accountant determines that~~ Resigning from the employing organization would be appropriate, doing so would is not be a substitute for taking other actions that ~~may~~ might be needed to achieve the senior professional accountant's objectives under this section. In some jurisdictions, however, there may might be limitations as to the further actions available to the ~~professional~~ accountant, and in such circumstances, resignation may might be the only available course of action.

260.19 A1 ~~360.27~~ As consideration of the matter ~~may~~ might involve complex analysis and judgments, the senior professional accountant ~~may~~ might consider:

- eConsulting internally,
- eObtaining legal advice to understand the ~~professional~~ accountant's options and the professional or legal implications of taking any particular course of action,
- eConsulting on a confidential basis with a regulator or professional body.

Determining Whether to Disclose the Matter to an Appropriate Authority

260.20 A1 ~~360.28~~ Disclosure of the matter to an appropriate authority would be precluded if doing so would be contrary to law or regulation. Otherwise, the purpose of making disclosure is to enable an appropriate authority to cause the matter to be investigated and action to be taken in the public interest.

260.20 A2 ~~360.29~~ The determination of whether to make such a disclosure depends in particular on the nature and extent of the actual or potential harm that is or ~~may~~ might be caused by the matter to investors, creditors, employees or the general public. For example, the senior professional accountant ~~may~~ might determine that disclosure of the matter to an appropriate authority is an appropriate course of action if:

- The employing organization is a ~~regulated entity~~ and the matter is of such significance as to threaten its license to operate.

Commented [KS4]: 360.29

- Whether there is an appropriate authority that is able to receive the information, and cause the matter to be investigated and action to be taken. The appropriate authority will depend upon the nature of the matter. ~~For example, the appropriate authority would be~~ a securities regulator in the case of fraudulent financial reporting or an environmental protection agency in the case of a breach of environmental laws and regulations.
- Whether there exists robust and credible protection from civil, criminal or professional liability or retaliation afforded by legislation or regulation, such as under whistle-blowing legislation or regulation.
